The Chimes

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:

a time to be born, and a time to die;

a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;

a time to kill, and a time to heal;

a time to break down, and a time to build up;

a time to weep, and a time to laugh;

a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;

a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

a time to seek, and a time to lose;

a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

a time to rend, and a time to sew;

a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

a time to love, and a time to hate;

a time of war, and a time of peace."

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Of Time

Time plays a memorable and important part in each of our lives. In this, our Unaliyi, we salute TIME, and in so doing we turn the clock backward to review briefly the years we have spent together as the Class of 1957.

The pendulum has moved slowly at times—when we waited impatiently for that big date, when we had to make a three-minute speech, or when we anxiously waited for the big game to begin.

The sand ran too rapidly from the hour glass on the night of the Prom, toward the end of that important examination, and during the last minute of holiday vacations.

With much humility we have come to realize that we have many God-given gifts, and one so precious is TIME, so we salute the seasons, the years, the months, the days, the hours and the minutes.

As we prepare these pages we are aware that TIME has brought us joy and sorrow, laughter and tears. Now we are reaching a new time in life—a time of commencement, a time of new endeavor, a time to take our place in the adult world to share in the decisions which will determine whether this will be a time of war or a time of peace.

And now we bid you venture with us as we listen to the ringing of "The Chimes of Time."

We Gratefully Dedicate

THE '57 UNALIYI TO

Miss Irene M. White

all that she has done for us, and for our school.

As coach of girls' hockey, basketball, and softball, she has led her teams to many championships in the years she has been with us.

An athlete in her own right, Miss White was chosen a member of the United States Touring Hockey Team last year, and spent the spring and summer playing with the team in Australia, New Zealand, and the islands of the Pacific.

Although the gymnasium, court, and field keep her very busy, she finds time to advise and chaperone extra-curricular affairs; and, an ardent Souderton fan, she seldom misses any contest in which our school participates.

For all these things, and many more, this is our way of saying, "Thank you, Miss White."

Every year, since the first "Unaliyi" was published in 1940, the staff has endeavored to present a comprehensive story of life at S.H.S.

Work on the '57 "Unaliyi" began early in the fall of 1956 with the election of our editor-in-chief, Barbara Fretz. Then, working in conjunction with the faculty advisers, Miss Weinert and Miss Gerhart, she selected the assistant editors and soon the compiling of the book went into full swing.

A variety of problems confronted our new editors, but in a short time the staffs were organized, "Chimes of Time" was chosen as the theme, and an unusual black padded cover was ordered.

On November 15 one-third of the book was turned over to the publishing company and, at nearly the same time, the sales staff launched a selling campaign, hoping to sell a record number of yearbooks. In order to meet the early deadlines, everyone took the theme, "TIME," to heart, and we became fifty-one of the world's most anxious clock-watchers. However, the staff got down to work and completed the entire book by March.

Since a countless number of hours were devoted to the "Unaliyi," the members felt well-rewarded for their labor by the satisfaction of turning out a book which, in the future, would bring back vivid memories to all of its readers.

At S.H.S. nearly everyone reads the "Arrowhead"

the week's news in one edition

If someone were to select the students who do the best school work and are the most well-informed on S.H.S. activities, the choice would undoubtedly be the group of "pencil pushers" who have compiled the weekly editions of the "Arrowhead" throughout the year.

Under the faculty adviser, Mrs. Kleist, the editors, Marilyn Barndt and Elizabeth Clemens, the "Arrowhead" made a considerable stride in improving its depth of coverage of school affairs. The 1956 presidential campaign pros and cons were aired in this news column and several features—"Along the Indian Trail," poems, honor rolls, and citizens of the week—were found in the editions.

The eight reporters, four seniors and four juniors, never failing to collect the data needed to make the "Arrowhead" both informative and interesting, extensively covered all events that occurred in the "Indian Wigwam."

Student Council

STRIVES FOR A BETTER AND MORE DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTION

Although the task of running the school lies entirely in the administration, Student Council tries successfully, to influence S.H.S. policies toward the best interests of the students.

The president, Claire Garrecht, and the council, working together with the administration, are responsible for its many accomplishments —the sponsoring of a refugee, the provision for hall monitors to avoid congestion, the presentation of assembly programs, and the election of the "Citizens of the Week."

Composed of representatives from each homeroom who are elected by the student body for one-semester terms, Student Council has become a very important and efficient organization at our school.

Band

hours spent on precision produce perfection

One of the most highly regarded bands in the Bux-Mont League is our own S.H.S. Band which, under the experienced direction of Mr. Foulke, has maintained its reputation as a well-balanced, precision organization.

Our Band always added flavor to a football game—win, lose, or draw. Their pre-game highlight was the two-line formation leading from the goal posts, through which the football players made their entrance onto the field; and the half-time routine featuring "Rock Around the Clock" proved to be very popular among the spectators.

At the conclusion of the football season, Sousa was traded for Bach, the marching band was converted into a concert band, and the following weeks were spent practicing numbers for the Christmas Candlelight Service. It was at this concert that the new set of tympani made its initial appearance.

Almost simultaneously, the Band then worked on the halftime shows for basketball season, and the annual Spring Concert. For both events they never failed to delight the audience by playing an unlimited number of songs.

With the end of the school term, the Band laid their instruments aside as another successful season came to a close.

The Color Guard

carrying our stars and stripes

Who does not stop to take a second look at a group of snappy-stepping girls, especially when they are marching in front of a colorful band?

The '56-'57 Color Guard is, of course, the group to which we are referring. These girls, who carried the colors faithfully at all football and basketball games, were chosen in their junior year, and made their debut at the 1956 Commencement.

Majorettes

twirling in time to the tom-tom beat

Eight lively strutters decked in Indian attire will long be remembered for the active role they played at our athletic events.

Under the direction of Judy Kulp, captain, and Miss Patricia Woomer, faculty adviser, the majorettes did a commendable job when it came time to perform in the brisk, wintry weather that accompanied our football games.

They made a pleasant picture, indeed, gaily marching down the field leading the band and twirling their silvery batons.

Their specialty numbers displayed at basketball half-time shows were the original routines of Judy Kulp, and each performance was spectacular.

Consisting of forty-six members, the Chorus was one of the finest ever to perform at S.H.S. and although small in number, these voices blended with terrific volume.

The selection of members was made solely by an ability test with special emphasis placed on three key factors that help greatly in producing a good singing—organization—vocalization, sight reading, and pitch.

Two highlights of the year—the annual Christmas Candlelight Service and the Spring Concert—presented in conjunction with the junior chorus and band, provided a great deal of relaxation and enjoyment for the audience. The candlelight procession by the senior and junior chorus girls, plus the traditional "Hallelujah Chorus" put the assembled persons in a reverent Christmas spirit. The soloists for this occasion were Elizabeth Clemens, Lucille Benner and Mary Jane Hagey.

Much credit is due to the directress of the Chorus, Miss Ailene Nase, who has done a splendid job in developing our chorus.

Treblettes

an important segment of the chorus

Treblettes, a branch of Senior Chorus, has, in recent years, become well known in our school and community, due largely to their unique presentation of popular and standard melodies. Composed of twenty-five girls with superior vocal ability and personality, the group performs not only at school functions, but also for civic and social groups in the surrounding area.

Usherettes

A smile and a warm "Hello" . . .

These eighteen attractive, personable junior girls were chosen by a faculty committee to serve on the Usherette Corps throughout the year.

School plays, Open House, Concerts, Commencement—these are just a few of the times that the girls were on hand to offer their friendly service. Under the capable tutelage of Mr. Gazdick, our usherettes always gave strangers the finest impression of S.H.S.

May Queen Attendants

Beauty Reigns . . .

May Day, an annual springtime event at S.H.S., is truly a day when beauty reigns.

Five lovely lasses from our graduating class—Dawn Bergey, Claire Garrecht, Mary Jane Hagey, Carol Johnson, and Pat Simmons—have been attendants to the May Queen at some time during their high school years.

Junior and Senior Assembly Officers practicing to be tomorrow's leaders . . .

In order to provide interesting, yet educational programs to the student body, Senior and Junior Assemblies elect officers and hold meetings each month. The popular productions of the assembly committees, headed by Mr. Patton and Mr. Boorse, have always helped tremendously in providing the students with excellent practice in parliamentary procedure and dramatics.

Audio-Visual Club

Experts in celluloid and sound . . .

Music amplification at victory dances was expertly handled by Tom Undercoffler.

If we were to set up a Department of Unsung Heroes, the Audio-visual boys would certainly rate at the top of the list, for their untiring work is done continually behind the scenes.

These fellows, under the experienced direction of Mr. Miller, take care of all amplifying, wiring, lighting, or movie projection that is done at S.H.S. We salute these versatile handymen!

"No More Homework"

On Saturday night, October 27, "No More Homework" was very successfully presented by the senior class. The characters came alive as they portrayed—with evident relish—the situations that developed on a typical high school day.

When Pamela Jones is asked to take over the job of principal at Ames High School, things really begin to happen. "Buzz" Bailey, her boyfriend, unexpectedly finds himself doubling as vice-principal and "home ec" teacher, with an omelette in one hand and a dress pattern in the other. Shalimar Ames, attractive but spoiled, takes over for Miss Dill, who is out with a cold.

Romance kicks up its heels, too. Who would have ever guessed that the elderly Miss Goodin "carried a torch" for the confirmed faculty bachelor, Mr. Harper? Who could have imagined that "Tick" Tok, the diminutive janitor, would eventually dominate Mrs. Ratchet, the demon scrub lady who—everybody suspected—rode home each night on her broomstick.

One complication leads to another. Mrs. Clendenning, the science teacher, is constantly complaining about the terrific heat in her room; Miss Goodin, about the cold; someone accidentally locks a limburger cheese sandwich in the trunkful of costumes for "Rusty Wings," the school play; and a dozen other things happen keeping the acting-principal, Pamela Jones, in a whirl! She even has to fill in for the lead of the school play at the last minute, and, as a result, runs into trouble with Tallulah Ploetz, the real actress.

Then somehow, with the return of Mr. Lundquist, the real principal, situations manage to correct themselves, and the whole school returns to normal. Well . . . more or less!

Varsity Football

THE HOURS WERE LONG, THE WORK HARD, BUT THE RESULTS WERE SECOND TO NONE IN SOUDERTON'S FOOTBALL HISTORY.

The time was Autumn, 1956, and the event was an undefeated season in football—Souderton's first. Never before in all the years of competition were our fighting "Indians" able to achieve such a spotless record.

Following a non-league tilt with William Tennant, the team plunged into its league contests, and became the center of attention by smashing Pennridge, last year's Bux-Mont champions, by a score of 40-6.

Throughout the season, victory followed victory; that is, until the Big Red met Ambler and the game ended in a 7-7 tie.

Bitterest of all hours were those when eleven of the muddiest Souderton players we ever saw battled with eleven equally muddy Quakertown players in a veritable swamp for the league title, and failed to score.

As a result of these two tied games, Souderton stepped back into second place and stayed there until the close of the season. A special tribute is certainly due the 1956 Varsity Squad for they will always be remembered as a part of Souderton's greatest year.

Varsity Basketball

Basketball season at Souderton this year saw four former lettermen return to the court. This marked the first time in many years that S. H. S. possessed a very strong reserve.

The average height of the starting five was better than 6 feet—a boon to a team invariably plagued by lack of height.

Captained by Souderton's two most all-round athletes—big Ron Frederick, six foot one inch center, and Joe Billger, one of the league's speediest courtmen—the team fought hard in game after game, believing that the outcome would depend entirely upon what each player contributed to the contest.

Baseball

THE TIME FOR BATS, BALLS, AND UMPIRES

Our enthusiasm for baseball has always reaped dividends for the Red and White, and this year was no exception since quite a few lettermen returned, and several seniors provided a fabulous nucleus for the Indians. Our man-on-the-mound, Ron Frederick, was well-assisted by our catcher, Randy Sommers; Joe Billger, defended second base, and Larry Souder covered shortstop.

Coached by Dal Smoot, the diamond men of '57 possessed the talent and spirit necessary to make this year another great one.

Souderton Cinderman

Coach George Patton and a group of serious track and field athletes have been devoting quite a bit of time and strenuous practice to making track the important part of the Souderton sports scene that it deserves to be.

The nucleus of the squad was found in Paul Fox, Bux-Mont 100 yard dash champ; George Moyer, discus and javelin expert; Don Price, specialist in broad and high jumping; and Alfred Feingold, Clyde Beck, and Les Hallman, our swift runners.

Hockey

As autumn months sped by and Souderton's Big Red Warriors reaped victory after victory on the gridiron, our hockey squaws also left the wigwam in search of scalps.

With the exception of only two returning lettermen, Miss White's squad consisted of relatively inexperienced players. But the dynamic spirit, sportsmanship, and will to win displayed by these girls more than outweighed the lack of experience, making them victors in all but two games.

Basketball

Five letterman returned with bright spirits, pushing hard for a championship team.

Miss White not only teaches the girls the skills of the game but also is of great moral support to her team.

From the very first game, when Pennridge suffered defeat, until the season closed, the girls worked hard for each victory, writing another challenging chapter in Souderton's history of sports.

Tennis

This year, for the first time, a tennis league was formed in the Bux-Mont area.

With all of last year's varsity letter winners returning, led by our number one racket girl, "Gogo" Alexander, the season was a bright and glorious one at S. H. S.

Junior High Football

Although Mr. Maza's Jr. High football team failed to win a game, it's season was far from being a failure. Good attitude and spirit were always present. The most important thing, experience, will be invaluable in the oncoming season and in years to come.

Injuries hampered the squad from the beginning of the season but despite this Mr. Maza turned out a tough and hard working team.

Junior High Basketball

Coach Bill Maza faced quite a difficult task this season as he founded a team with no lettermen and only a few experienced men. Mr. Maza spends most of the time teaching the boys the basic fundamentals of the game and tries to instill within his team a fine spirit and will to win.

These fine traits make the boys realize the value of good sportsmanship, which is the greatest accomplishment which any coach and team can possibly attain.

Gymnastics

. . . TIMING MUST BE PERFECT.

Days between basketball and baseball seasons, when the stop-watches and timeclocks are silent, are never dull days in the gymnasium; for it is at this time of year that we concentrate on gymnastics and S.H.S. students can be found in assorted positions—bouncing on trampolines, swinging from rings, climbing up ropes, diving over obstacles, and, alas, often ending as unsuccessful heaps of legs, arms and skinned knees.

JAMES LESTER KELLER

". . . Whose distant footsteps echo through the corridors of time."

On this page we, the class of 1957 take time to remember and pay tribute to James Lester Keller.

Jim came to us from Telford, and his record there was excellent. His scholastic average of B+ rated him highest among the boys. He was class treasurer in grades six, seven and eight. In his eighth grade at Telford he represented the school in the county spelling contest at Norristown.

Jimmy was with us three months in high school when he underwent brain surgery. His recovery was remarkable, and he returned to school the following fall. Again his health failed him. This time he was confined to his home, where he continued his education, with the help of his high school teachers.

Although his health declined to the point of bed confinement, his faith in God became a stronghold through the remaining two years of his sojourn on earth.

We will always remember Jim as a hard worker, and as a dependable, popular person. The memory of his friendly smile will live on in our hearts.

James passed on August 19, 1956.
